When you’re driving, the only screen that deserves your attention is the windshield in front of you. Don’t let texts, calls or other distractions divert your eyes from the road ahead.

when it’s time to drive, set distractions aside.

shepherd.org